

Being a member of AFEPI Ireland includes great professional benefits:

Professional affiliation

- Membership of a curated professional organisation provides independent confirmation of your skills and experience from your peers and professional body
- AFEPI Ireland's Code of Practice reassures your clients of your professionalism and commitment to excellence
- The use of AFEPI Ireland Member or Associate logo for your website and correspondence
- Entitlement to vote at AGM (Full members only)
- The opportunity to stand for election to the Executive Committee and/or serve on the Membership Committee of AFEPI Ireland and help shape the present and future

Job opportunities

- Your directory entry on the Association's website (Full members only; Associate members have their name and contact details on the Associate page) allows you to promote yourself and your specialisms to potential clients
- AFEPI Ireland private forums provide all members with access to editing, indexing and proofreading jobs posted by other members or by the Association

Subsidies & discounts

- Generous training subsidies to assist members with CPD and Associate members to upgrade to Full membership (with priority given to Associate members)
- Discounts for editorial and indexing training courses from partner organisations
- Discounts for editing software and software training courses

Social & networking events

- Social events – Christmas lunch, post-AGM lunch and End-of-Summer Social
- Local group meetings – social and networking meet-ups in various regional locations across Ireland
- Networking events with AFEPI Ireland members and other industry professionals/organisations
- Calendar of monthly events – online talks and in-person meet-ups on business, editorial and indexing topics exclusively for members

Other benefits

- Legal contract templates (under review)
- Recommended rates as a guideline for members when discussing fees with clients
- The chance to write for AFEPI Ireland's blog and showcase your work and specialisms
- Executive Committee newsletters and updates